MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Cheap excursion to Niagara Falls, Tuesday August 18th, via Z. & O. R.

Mrs. Harry Reckard and Miss Sadie Dowd returned from Akron last Saturday evening after spending the week very pleasantly visiting their friend, Mrs. Mary Williams, formerly Miss Rood, of Cornville.

Miss Carrie Hayes, of Vincent, left at 11:25 Thursday night to attend school at Lebanon.

The Executive Committee of the 77th O. V. V. I. organization met in this city Wednesday, July 29th, and fixed the date for the 34th Annual Reunion of the survivors of their regiment. It will be held in this city on Thursday, Sept. 3d, 1896, which will be the second day of the Washington County fair. The above date was made necessary because all our railroads and steamboats will then have reduced rates. All survivors of this grand old regiment will make a special effort to attend this re-union. The 9th O. V. I. and Washington County Association of union ex-prisoners of war will meet with the 77th.

The Catharine Davis, under the management of the base ball team will run an excursion to Sistersville today on account of the game in that city. The fare will be one dollar for the round trip and the steamer will leave at 9 a. m.

Emma Greathouse who was bound over to court by Squire Murphy on the charge of assault and battery, is in the county jail awaiting the action of the next grand jury. A man named Shuster, also of Newport township, is in jail awaiting trial for shooting with intent to kill.

Frank Ridenbach left Thursday for Blake's Mills, Tuscarawas county, to attend the funeral of his father, Wm. F. Ridenbach, who died Saturday. Of his death the Tuscarawas Advocate says:

"Wm. F. Ridenbach died at his residence in Blake's Mills, Saturday evening, of dropsy and heart disease. He had been in failing health for a year or more, but was not seriously sick until last Friday. Mr. Ridenbach was born in Berne, Switzerland, and came to America in early youth. He enlisted in Company "A", 51st Regiment, O. V. I., September 7, 1861, at the age of thirty-five years. He was a member of Andrew Crawford Post, G. A. R., and the Post attended his funeral in a body, Monday afternoon. Mr. Ridenbach organized the first fire company in Blake's Mills and the firemen of that village and of this city also attended the funeral, but not in a body. He was past seventy years of age.

Mrs. Joseph Sellow, mother of T. G. Sellow, was in the city Wednesday evening attending the Sellow-Haight wedding.

Mrs. Charles Bishop and daughters left for their home at Columbus Thursday, after a pleasant visit in this city with the family of Peter Lattemer.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Alderman, of Nevada, Iowa, are visiting friends in this County.

Judging from the first installment of Jones pavers, which are being distributed along Third street, the job will be done of first class material.

The free park concerts have been discontinued on account of lack of funds, but it is hoped only temporarily. The city makes no provision whatever for the payment of the musicians and if these weekly entertainments are to be enjoyed further they must be paid for by the general public.

Wm. E. Roberman has accepted a position in the Leader Office.

Geo. B. Sunderland sold the W. Mason property in West Marietta to Joseph Campbell.

Hon. W. B. McGill was in the city Thursday and placed us under obligations to him for state publications.

Mr. M. M. Rose has been confined to the house by illness for several days.

Dan Hickman was fined $5 and costs Thursday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

The case of Ohio vs. Ida Davis and Mollie Cunningham, charged with trespass and larceny, was dismissed by Squire Palmer Thursday.

Geo. B. Sunderland sold a lot to Abbie C. Pegg in the east end sub-division.

The house of William Conner, which was burned Wednesday, was insured for $175. The household goods were insured for $300 and the loss on them will be about $150.

Mr. George R. Grafton returned Thursday from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he has been in charge of the furniture exhibition of the Marietta Chair Co.

At the close of the second inning of the Sistersville-Marietta game Thursday the score stood 1 to 0 in favor of Sistersville. The game was stopped at this point on account of rain and a double header will be played today. A few minutes after the audience left the grand stand it was unroofed by the high wind, but no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert and child, of Sharpsburg, Pa., are visiting his father, Mr. J. Hulbert, Second street.

Mrs. L. M. Skinner, of Parkersburg, is visiting relatives in Marietta.

It is suggested that it would be a good move for the base ball management to make one of the games with Parkersburg a benefit for free park concerts.

At the Leidecker Tool Works Thursday a bolt in a traveling crane became loosened and allowed the crane to fall. Shannon Outshaw and James McNanna each had a foot mashed under the heavy machine, the latter's injuries being quite serious.

Mr. A. H. Weaver, of the Oil Well Supply Company, with his son Glen, is here for a few days.

G. L. Hunt removed Thursday from Fifth street to Fred Blume's new house on the corner of Eighth and Washington streets.

The funeral of the late Warner Greene will occur this Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, standard time, at the residence on Muskingum avenue, next above the Park.

Misses Virginia and Bertha Hall are in the city, the former at Mr. R. D. Cooke's, the latter at Mr. George Jones', Second street.

The whistle on the new boiler works is a dandy. It is eighteen inches long, and occupies a tone position way down in the sub-bass.

The Rev. E. A. Coil and Rev. W. E. Roe will make addresses at the Watertown Harvest Home picnic on Saturday, Aug. 8th.

A valuable horse belonging to John Schwendeman, near Churchtown, was killed by lightning Wednesday evening, and another horse, the property of Alex Schwendeman, had an eye injured from the same cause.

Styer's Drug Store.

Who is Carrie Brown?

The Cincinnati Enquirer has the following:

Lying on a slab at the Morgue is the body of an unknown woman. The dead woman was a good looking brunette, about 30 years old, and the Coroner thinks that she came to this city from Marietta, O. She died at the Maternity Hospital, of Eighth street, where she was known as Carrie Brown, but that was not her right name. The deceased came to the Maternity Hospital a few days ago and begged to be taken in until she had undergone the throes of maternity. She had some money, which she paid for her keeping. A child was born to the woman, and she seemed to be getting along all right, but she had a relapse and died yesterday morning. A post mortem examination will be made today by Dr. W. A. McWan.

Among the effects of the dead woman was a note addressed to James Smith, 629 Washington avenue, Newport, Ky. Constable McKnight investigated and found that Smith is employed as coachman by Lawyer Crawford, who defended Scott Jackson in the Pearl Bryan murder case. Smith's wife was recently an inmate of the Maternity Hospital, where she became acquainted with the dead woman. The latter said that her name was not Brown, but she took Mrs. Smith's address, and said she would call on her after she was out of trouble. The deceased stated that she was betrayed by a prominent man under promise of marriage. Further than that nothing is known of her.

Umpires.

EDITOR LEADER—A regular subscriber of your paper and one who attends many of the ball games, and who was in attendance upon the game recently contested between the home team and the Parkersburg team, notices by Thursday's Register that Mr. Miller, of Athens, O., will be asked to umpire the Parkersburg-Marietta games.

I would like to ask through your columns that the base ball management have a home umpire. Several good and impartial gentlemen reside here, and I know fair treatment will be given by any the management may select.

We surely have as good if not better than was furnished by Parkersburg. Let us have one of our home people.

Just What's Needed

Exclaims thousands of people who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at this season of the year, and who have noted the success of the medicine in giving them relief from that tired feeling, waning appetite and state of extreme exhaustion after the close confinement of a long winter season, the busy time attendant upon a large and pressing business during the spring months and with vacation time yet some weeks distant. It is then that the building-up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are fully appreciated. It seems perfectly adapted to overcome that prostration caused by change of season, climate or life, and while it tones and sustains the system, it purifies and vitalizes the blood.

AFTER THE WAR.

A Story of the Sufferings of a Prominent Pennsylvania Attorney.

From Pittsburgh Post.

Instances by the hundreds can be found all over the country of men who went into the war of the rebellion strong and healthy and came out physically wrecked. The discomforts and exposures of those four awful years left with them a legacy of disease that is bringing them one by one to their graves. And yet some are finding relief, even at this late date. One of the most interesting cases of this sort is that of John P. Donnan, a prominent pension claim attorney of Burgettstown, Pa. Mr. Donnan suffered tortures from troubles resulting from disordered kidneys and has been cured by that never-failing remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. His story is an exceptionally interesting one.

"When I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills a few months ago," he said, "I had not eaten bread or any other starchy food, or fats of any kind, for nearly two years. For a long while I had been treated for disorders of the stomach and had taken quite a variety of strong tonics, peptones, and other similar medicines without any appreciable results. To begin with, I am a total physical wreck, having, while serving with Sherman in his Georgia campaign, contracted pneumonia, which resulted in the entire consolidation of my right lung, curvature of the spine, and heart disease, for which I have been drawing a pension for more than 30 years. These organic diseases are, of course, incurable, but I have been convinced recently that my gastric trouble was due alone to kidney disorder. My father was a medical practitioner here for 50 years, and I have read quite a good deal on the subject of medicine, and so was able to diagnose my case.

"At the time I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills my urine was scant, highly colored and strong smelling; I was pale, tongue heavily coated, flesh soft and flabby, had a poor appetite, and rested poorly at night. My weight was 116 pounds. After using Doan's Kidney Pills for two months, I can cheerfully testify to their remarkable worth. My weight has increased nearly 10 pounds, flesh is much firmer, urine normal, color good and appetite excellent. I can now eat my favorite pork and beans without the slightest distress. I sleep like a child and am in every way as well as it will ever be possible for me to get. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends and comrades on all occasions."

You can get Doan's Kidney Pills at your druggist's at 50 cents a box, or they will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., sole agents, Buffalo, N. Y.
